Things Remembered Gifts Say “I Love You” in One Easy Step this Valentine’s Day
Meaningful Engravings and New Special Packaging Help Gift Givers Customize Their Gifts

Cleveland, Nov. 29, 2010 — Saying those three little words isn’t always easy. Giving a gift that expresses how you really feel this Valentine’s Day can be. To help sweethearts show their love, Things Remembered is engraving “love” for free on any in-store gift purchase. Plus, to ensure the entire gift dazzles with personalized sentiment, the retailer is offering an array of engravable gift boxes and special packaging. These special offers are in perfect complement to the wide array of gifts Things Remembered is rolling out for the occasion, each with enough room to personalize with a love note or special wish.

“Understanding busy schedules, we want to help shoppers give gifts that are truly meaningful while ensuring they can still select a gift and have it wrapped and ready to go in one simple trip,” says Amy Myers, vice president of creative services at Things Remembered. “This year, shoppers will find that and more, and we’re excited to offer a variety of custom options, from the messaging on the gift to the way it’s presented.”

Among the new Things Remembered gifts for Valentine’s Day, each of which can be packaged in a special gift bag, and engraved with a name, date, free “love” and/or another special message:

Traditional Valentines with a Modern Twist

Stylish gifts for him:

- USB Memory Dog Tag – Put a techie, yet personal spin on a classic gift for men. One of the silver-plated dog tags in this handsome set hides a USB drive that flips open for easy use and holds two gigs of files. Save a love letter on the fashionable USB drive before gifting, and engrave the set’s second tag with his name on the front and your name on the back, along with a phrase that means something special to only the two of you. Both tags are attached to a classic ball chain for a fashionable style he’ll be proud to own.
- Watch Money Clip – Two gifts in one – a money clip and a watch. With its elegant, gorgeous gloss black dial and sleek silver-plated finish, this watch money clip will draw attention every time it makes an appearance, not to mention it will help keep his bills in place. Engrave it with his name or a special date to show him how much you love him every minute of the day.

Valentines to Cherish a Memory, Share a Message

- Photo Canvas – Put your picture-perfect love on display this Valentine's Day. Things Remembered is offering gallery-quality photo canvasses of your most cherished moments, and an individual artist can work with you to turn your photo into a masterpiece. An enlarged photo can be printed in black & white, sepia, or even on aluminum to encapsulate a timeless love. Personalize the photo canvas with your vows, a poem, or a quote that encompasses your love for each other. Available in a variety of sizes up to 30 inches x 40 inches.
- Heart Journal – Fill the pages of this shining journal with memories of how you met and special dates since. A metal cover and backing keep the interior pages safe, and the cover features a crystal-adorned filigree heart, beaded detailing and lots of space to engrave a love note all your own.
- Birthstone Pen – This classic silver pen comes with a modern twist: a birthstone on the top of the pen. Is your sweetheart a mom or a dad? Choose a birthstone from their child's birth month, or give your significant other a pen featuring his or her birthstone or yours! With 12 available birthstones, it's a great way to make a gift even more personal. An intricately designed center ring compliments the sleek barrel design. Engrave his or her name on the pen's barrel for a gift they'll use every day.
- Message Key Chain – Nothing is more romantic than the classic love letter. This key chain gives her one she'll carry with her everywhere she goes. A miniature sterling-silver envelope features an enclosed silver letter that slips out when the envelope's magnetic clasp is open. For a special surprise, have your heartfelt sentiment engraved on the letter and affix her car keys to the keychain. When she goes to pick up her keys on Valentine's Day morning, she'll be beaming at your special gesture.

Heartfelt Gifts for Her

- Panda Bear with Heart Frame – Soft and cuddly, this lovable panda bear is the perfect way to say "I Love You" to girls of all ages. It comes with a heart-shaped picture frame for a keepsake she'll be proud to display. Slide in a favorite picture of the two of you, and engrave the smaller heart with a special message. The panda bear also includes a special gift box.
- Lock and Key Bracelet – Give her the keys to your heart this Valentine's Day. Equipped with real working keys for the bracelet's locked heart, this silver-plated bracelet is adorned with pink, cubic zirconium crystal accents to truly sparkle. The included keys open the bracelet's heart-shaped clasp, with one key for you, and one key for her. Engrave the heart plaque with your Valentine's Day love wishes. This gift also includes a free engravable box.
- Custom Music Box – This Valentine's Day will be music to her ears. Things Remembered offers a variety of custom music boxes, with room to fit all her favorite jewelry. The custom boxes play 40-second sound clips of original artist recordings, complete with lyrics, instruments, and vocals. Is there a love tune that captures your feelings for her? Choose a song and style, including heart, oval or rectangle shapes. Among the available songs, Roy Orbison's Pretty Woman, The Dixie Cups' Chapel of Love, and Elton John's Can You Feel the Love Tonight. Each music box offers a plush interior jewelry storage and dividers to keep accessories safe. This classic gift can be engraved with a written melody of your own.
